- All Memberships are Represented: The NCCW Board of Directors, Staff, and other volunteers work closely with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the United Nations and World Union of Catholic Women's Organisations (WUCWO): representing the interests of Catholic women in service to the Church. Your membership ensures the united voices of Catholic women will be heard.
- Leadership, Service, Spirituality: NCCW members incorporate gospel values in their activities with a commitment to the dignity of all human life, to strengthen families, build better communities, and address societal problems at home and abroad. NCCW provides leadership, education, and advocacy on many contemporary issues, including social and economic justice, domestic violence, homelessness and human trafficking. NCCW offers their members resources for personal spiritual growth and development.
